Moussette, Moreen, Vavra earn All-Conference

By JAKE EBNER

It was a cold and rainy day, and the course was full of water and mud, but that didn't stop three Cornell-Lake Holcombe Knights Cross Country runners from earning one of the top 16 places to earn All-Conference honors October 15, when they traveled to Frederic to compete in the Lakeland Conference Cross Country meet.

The high school girls team had their highest conference place ever, finishing in second place overall to Cameron. The Knights were led by Lexi Moussette, 19 minutes, 31seconds, who finished 10th.

Thia Moreen, 19:33, and Kayla Vavra, 19:43, finished 11th and 12th respectively.

Danielle Gygi finished 20th with a time of 20:04, barely missing All-Conference honors. Anna Burlingame finished 28th with a time of 20:56 and Kaitlin Peterson finished 51st with a time of 23:19.

The high school boys were led by Nathan Parkhurst, 27:02, and Brandon Bintz, 28:22.

The middle school girls were led by Kyra Wright, 11:26, and Ashlynn Moore, 11:35, who finished 18th and 21st respectively.

Other finishers included Emily Vavra, 12:29; Isabelle Dixon, 12:30; Isabel Nedland, 12:50; Kierra Walters, 13:01; and Gabby Harp, 13:10.

The middle school boys were led by Luke Thompson, 11:18, who finished in 18th place.

Other finishers included Tyler Dixon, 12:20, and Evan Moore, 12:42.

The meet concluded the 2013 middle school season.

The high school athletes' next race will be Saturday, Oct. 26, when they travel to Boyceville for the sectional meet.

From there, the top two teams and top five runners will advance to the state meet which will be held at Wisconsin Rapids Saturday, Nov. 2.
