

Knights Cross Country team season begins

The Cornell-Lake Holcombe Knights Cross Country attempted its first meet of the season Thursday, Aug. 29, at Boyceville.

The high school girls completed their 4K course, but the rest of the meet was cancelled after that race from the number of heat related symptoms experienced by runners. None of the Cornell-Lake Holcombe athletes were affected.

Despite the heat, the girls ran well. There were 128 runners in the race.

Kayla Vavra finished 11th overall and was the first Knight finisher. Other finishers for the Knights included Lexi Moussette, Thia Moreen, Danielle Gygi, Elizabeth Sproul, Anna Burlingame and Kaitlin Peterson.

The Knights Cross Country team was able to have its entire team compete in its first full meet of the season, when they traveled to Bruce to compete in a much more comfortable temperature range Tuesday, Sept. 3.

The high school girls team finished in sixth place. They were led by Kayla Vavra and Lexi Moussette who finished 13th and 14th respectively.

Also placing for the lady Knights were Danielle Gygi (21 minutes, 30 seconds), Elizabeth Sproul (22:01), Anna Burlingame (22:03), Thia Moreen (22:29) and Kaitlin Peterson (23:37).

The high school boys team was led by its lone finisher, Brandon Bintz.

The middle school girls team finished in fifth place. They were led by Ashlynn Moore who finished in 16th place.

Also placing were Emily Vavra (12:16), Kyra Wright (12:27), Isabel Nedland (13:19), Gabby Harp (13:52) and Kierra Walters (13:54).

The middle school boys team was led by Evan Dixon, who finished with a time of 11:51. Also placing were Luke Thompson (11:57), Evan Moore (13:06) and Tyler Dixon (14:20).

The Knights Cross Country team will compete next at Bloomer Tuesday, Sept. 10.
